The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday February 23, to Tuesday February 26, 1793.

By the KING,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS Attempts may be made to seduce some of Our Subjects, contrary to their Allegiance and Duty to Us, to enter on board French Ships or Vessels of War, or other Ships or Vessels of France, with Intent to commit Hostilities against Us or Our Subjects, or otherwise to adhere or give Aid or Comfort to Our Enemies upon the Sea: Now We, in order that none of Our Subjects may ignorantly incur the Guilt and Penalties of such Breaches of their Allegiance and Duty, have thought it necessary, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to publish this Our Royal Proclamation, hereby notifying and declaring, that all Persons being Our Subjects, who shall enter or serve on board any French Ships or Vessels of War, or other Ships or Vessels of France, with Intent to commit Hostilities against Us or Our Subjects, or who shall otherwise adhere or give Aid or Comfort to Our Enemies upon the Sea, will thereby become liable to suffer the Pains of Death, and all other Pains and Penalties of High Treason and Piracy. And We do hereby declare Our Royal Intention and firm Resolution to proceed against all such Offenders according to Law. Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Twentieth Day of February, 1793, in the Thirty-third Year of Our Reign.

GOD Save the KING.

Whitehall, February 26.

The following Address having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Henry Dundas, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has been by him presented to the King: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Right Honorable the Lord Provost, Magistrates and Council of the City of Edinburgh, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates and Council of your ancient City of Edinburgh, conceive it to be our Duty to offer to your Majesty our most sincere Thanks for that Expression of your gracious Will, signified to the Nation by your late Royal Message to both Houses of Parliament; a Message which intimates that, in the same Spirit which has distinguished every Act of your Majesty's Reign, you have, in the present Emergency, taken every Step which was necessary to maintain the Honour of the British Crown, and the Rights of a brave, a loyal, and a free People.

Sensible as we are of the Blessings of Peace, which, as a Commercial Nation, it is our Interest to maintain, when it can be done consistently with Public Safety and with National Honour, we should hold ourselves unworthy of the Name of Britons, if in this alarming Crisis of imminent and common Danger, we did not rouse to a Man to repel the hostile Aggression of an Enemy, who, after tearing to Pieces every Bond of Society within her own Dominions, has raised a frantic Arm against the general Peace and Happiness of Europe; who, in Defiance of every Principle of Justice, or of moral Feeling, while Great-

[Price Eight-pence.]

Great Britain had honorably maintained a ſtrict Neutrality, and generouſly forbore to interfere in her domeſtic Arrangements, had openly countenanced the ſeditious Deſigns of thoſe unworthy Men, who, inſenſible of the Bleſſings they enjoyed under this admirable Conſtitution, had traiterouſly courted the Fraternity of France, and ſtrove to diſſeminate in this happy Country the ſame infamous Principles which had involved that Nation in Miſery and Ruin.

Such is that Enemy whom the Circumſtances of the Safety of our Allies, the general Peace of Europe, and at length an open Declaration of War againſt ourſelves, now call upon us to reſiſt with all our Force. We prepare therefore to ſuſtain our Part in this moſt neceſſary War, as becomes a brave and an independent People. We devote ourſelves with manly Zeal to the Defence of our Country, in this Hour of Danger; and we will chearfully contribute our Lives and Fortunes, in a vigorous and patriotic Exertion to maintain the Honour of the Britiſh Arms, to ſupport your Majeſty's wiſe and equitable Government, and to preſerve the Purity, Independence, and Stability of our glorious Conſtitution.

Signed and ſealed by our Appointment, and in our Preſence, this 20th Day of February, 1793.

Tho. Elder, Provoſt.

Whitehall, February 26.

The following Addreſs has been preſented to the King: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Oldham, Lancaſhire.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Oldham, Lancaſhire, highly ſenſible of the Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and equitable Government, humbly preſume to approach the Throne with the warmeſt Expreſſions of Loyalty and Gratitude for the wiſe and ſalutary Meaſures adopted by your Majeſty for the Suppreſſion of thoſe ſeditious and libellous Publications which have of late diſgraced the Liberty of the Preſs.

Firmly attached to your Majeſty and our glorious and happy Conſtitution in Church and State, it is with the deepeſt Regret and utter Abhorrence we ſee the inſidious Attempts of ill-diſpoſed Perſons to diſſeminate thoſe levelling Principles that have cauſed the horrid Scenes of Rebellion and Murder in a neighbouring Nation, and which, if introduced into this Kingdom, muſt inevitably deprive us of all an Engliſhman holds moſt dear; his Religion, Liberty and Laws.

At the Foot of the Throne we therefore beg Leave to offer our Lives and Fortunes, which we freely devote to the Support of your Majeſty's Perſon and Government.

We deplore the Fate of the late unfortuanate and much injured French Monarch, but while the ſympathiſing Tear flows from our Eyes at the Recital of his unmerited Suffering, we reflect with redoubled Pleaſure on the ineſtimable Happineſs of our own Situation, in being Subjects of a Sovereign, whoſe private Virtues endear him to the Hearts of all his People, as much as his public Conduct commands their Admiration and Reſpect.

STATE LOTTERY.

Stamp-Office, Somerſet-Place, Feb. 12, 1793.

HIS Majeſty's Commiſſioners for managing the Stamp Duties think it proper, on the near Approach of the Drawing of the Lottery, to give this Publick Notice, that the following Regulations are eſtabliſhed by this Office, for preventing ILLEGAL INSURANCE:

1ſt. Purſuant to a Settlement with the Committee of City Lands, no Perſon will be admitted at Guildhall to take down the Numbers as they are drawn but the Clerks of the licenſed Lottery-Office-Keepers.

2d. The Numbers are to be taken by the ſaid Clerks, not, as before, on ſeparate Slips, but in the Numerical Book of each Office, ſigned by the reſpective Office-Keepers, and counter-ſigned by Two or more of the Commiſſioners of Stamps.

3d. No Account of any Part of the Drawing in each Day is to be iſſued, nor any of the Clerks to return with their Numerical Books, until the final Cloſe of each Day's Drawing.

4th. By a Settlement with Mr. Steele, the Proprietor of the Patent Liſt, the ſame is not to be publiſhed, as heretofore, heretofore, by Slips, in each Hour, nor by an early Account of the Drawing of each Day, (both of which Communications obviously contributed to the Abuses of illegal Insurance;) but in future only Twice a Week, for the necessary Information of the Publick at large, and at such Hours as the Intelligence can be least perverted for the Abuses of unlicensed Offices, if any such shall remain. But the Commissioners trust, that, by these Regulations, and by the published Notices from the Lord Mayor and the Court of Aldermen, as well as from the Chairman and the Magistrates for Westminster and the County of Middlesex; and likewise from the Magistrates of the Police, of a perfect Co-operation with this Office, the only remaining Abuse that has attached on the State Lotteries will be as totally suppressed as the Sale of illegal Chances, which is completely at an End. The insuperable Difficulties that are now opposed to the illegal Transactions, cannot fail to discourage the Continuance of unlicensed Offices; and the Evidence of the Publick, that if any such should be continued, they must proceed without authentick Intelligence of the Drawings, cannot but prevent, to a great Degree, further Confidence being reposed in the illicit Dealers; who, on their Part, by persisting in illegal Attempts, can only expose themselves, for diminished Profits, to the increased Vigilance of the Magistracy in the effectual Maintenance of the Law.

By Order of the Commissioners,
John Brettell, Secretary.

It may be necessary to apprize the Public that this is the only authentic and uninterrupted Publication of the Drawing of the Lottery.
